

9 June 2020

- 11.00-11.15: Welcome and introduction
Lecturer: Bettina Lemann Kristiansen, Department of Law, Aarhus BSS, AU,
- 11.15-12.00: Overview – methods in legal research
Lecturer: Bettina Lemann Kristiansen, Department of Law, Aarhus BSS, AU
- 12.00-13.00: PhD-fellows' workshop on (1) how to share experiences and ideas on ensuring the connection between their research questions and methodologies as well as (2) on the relevance of comparative law in their projects.
- 13.00-14.00: Lunch
- 14.00-15.00: Legal Sociology and Legal Pluralism
Lecturer: Bettina Lemann Kristiansen, Department of Law, Aarhus BSS, AU
- 15.00-15.30: Coffee
- 15.30-16.15 Comparative legal approaches
Lecturer: Thomas Lundmark, University of Hull and professor emeritus, WWU Münster
- 16.15-17.00: Comparative Law
Lecturer: Anette Storgaard, Department of Law, Aarhus BSS, AU
- 17.00-18:00 Group presentations and discussion in plenum
- 18:30 - Dinner

10 June 2019

- 09.00-10.00: Research within transnational law – sources and methods
Lecturer: Katerina Mitkidis, Department of Law, AU
- 10.00-10.15: Coffee
- 10.15-11.15: Legal politics: Let's talk about it.
Lecturer: Sten Schaumburg-Müller, Department of Law, Aarhus BSS, AU
- 11.15-12.00: PhD-fellows' workshop on their experiences and ideas related to transnational law and legal politics
- 12.00-13.00 Lunch
- 13.00-14.00: The 'Empirical Turn' and its consequences for legal scholarship
Lecturer: Jakob v. H. Holtermann, Faculty of Law, KU
- 14.00-14.15: Brief discussion on empirical approaches in ph.d.projects
- 14.15-14.30: Coffee
- 14.30-16:00: Law and Economics
Lecturers: Kim Østergaard and/or Kalle Rose, Department of Law, CBS (to be confirmed)
- 18.00- Dinner

11 June 2019

- 09.00- 10:00 Legal dogmatics. Let's talk about it.
Lecturer: Sten Schaumburg-Müller, Department of Law, SDU
Including questions, exchanges and a small break
- 10.00-11.00: Method(s) when dealing with EU-law
Lecturer: Carina Risvig Hamer, SDU
Including questions, exchanges and a small break
- 11.00-12.00: Industry rules as legal source
Lecturer: Cristian Frier, SDU
Including questions, exchanges and a small break
- 12.00-13.00: Lunch
- 13.00-14.00: Method(s) when writing on international law
Lecturer: Frederik Harhoff, Department of Law, SDU
Including questions, exchanges and a small break
- 14.00-15.00: Method(s) when dealing with criminal law
Lecturer, Lotte Helms, SDU
Including questions, exchanges and a small break
- 15.00-16.30: Coffe break and workshops on dogmatic methods.
- 16.30-17.00: Plenum discussion
- 19.00- Dinner

12 June 2019

- 09.00-10.00: How to include legal principles and soft law in research projects
Lecturer: Hans Henrik Edlund, Department of Law, Aarhus BSS, AU
- 10.00-11.00 Law enforcement in an international context. Some methodological considerations
Lecturer: NN
- 11.00-12.00: Legal Pluralism and Multilevel Governance
Lecturer: Bettina Lemann Kristiansen, Department of Law, Aarhus BSS, AU
- 12.00-13.00 Lunch
- 13.00- 14.00 Workshop on whether it is relevant for your projects to include methodological and theoretical aspects related to the concrete importance of the distinction between legal principles, soft law and written norms
Lecturer: Bettina Lemann Kristiansen, Department of Law, Aarhus BSS, AU,

Reading list will follow